The New Policies of THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

OF NEW YORK

Have been carefully drawn so as to avoid as far as possible the use of unnecessary technical terms. The agreements and privileges are clearly and precisely stated, and the contract may be easily understood by its possessor.

They are the best of life insurance contracts and are issued by the BEST of all the companies in the world.

LIMITED PAYMENT LIFE POLICY.

By the terms of this contract the amount of the insurance is payable upon the death of the insured, and the premiums are payable during a limited number of years—twenty, fifteen or ten years.

The Limited Payment Life Policy is in many respects and for a large class of insurers a most desirable contract, providing as it does that the premiums shall all be paid in the early and productive years of life, thus the policy becomes fully paid-up for the whole amount in a fixed number of years. Dividends are payable annually, or at the end of 5, 10, 15 or 20 years.

HOW MUCH WILL IT COST?

Between the ages of 25 and 31 years, inclusive, six to seven cents a day will be the "first cost" of $1000 good life insurance.

Between the ages of 32 and 35 years, seven to fifteen cents a day.

Between the ages of 36 and 40 years, sixteen to twenty-nine cents a day.

Is there any healthy man or woman in America at work for wages who can not afford this "first cost" of a good $1000 policy in the best and strongest company on earth?

A little self-denial in small things—pleasant things, perhaps, but unnecessary things—will pay the bill easily.

Different forms of policies cost various prices.

OUR TWENTY-YEAR DISTRIBUTION POLICY on continuous life and limited payment plans affords the maximum of security at the minimum of cost.

OUR GUARANTEED INCOME POLICY provides a guaranteed income, secure investment, and absolute protection.

OUR ENDOWMENT POLICY provides a certain guaranteed sum, payable with profits at a fixed time.

OUR 4 AND 5 PER CENT. BONDS furnish the best and most effective forms of indemnity and fixed annual income to survivors.

OUR CONTINUOUS INSTALLMENT POLICY so adjusts the payment of the amount insured as to create a fixed income during the life of the beneficiary.

OUR ANNUITY POLICIES offer an excellent opportunity for persons to obtain a high rate of interest on their capital for the remainder of life; an income safe beyond mishap. This form of investment is particularly recommended to those who desire to make provision for declining years, and to be free from business cares.

We have prices to fit all known wants. All we want to know is what you want. If you do not know, tell us enough of your condition and surroundings and we can suggest the policy best suited to your purpose.

Rates and guarantees cheerfully furnished on application.

PHOTOGRAPHED AS A CRIMINAL BEFORE AGGUSATION

Some time ago, as reported in The Bulletin, two Japanese, one a former employee of the Waimanalo Wine Co. and one then an employee of the same firm, were arrested on a charge of embezzlement. Before any charge was placed against them on the docket of the court, a photographer was summoned at the request of the manager of a Kani wine company and the two Japanese were then photographed in the court house. Upon the completion of this unusual act, they were then charged with embezzlement and committed to jail in the sum of $1,000 each. The trial of Maruoka, who had severed his connection with the Waimanalo Wine Co. some two months before, resulted in his being sentenced to two months' imprisonment by the local magistrate, Judge A. B. Hofgaard. No defense was put up by the defendant and an appeal taken to the Circuit Court. The Grand Jury failed to find any trace of embezzlement when the case came up before them and ordered the sum of $75, which had been held by the Deputy Sheriff as evidence, returned to the defendant, who was lawfully entitled to the money. As no indictment had been found, the case was dropped.

It is noted as strange that any person, before being proved guilty, should be subjected to having his picture taken against his will, by any police officer, even if so requested by the complaining witness.

SELECTING JURORS FOR JOHNSON CASE

The selection of a jury to try the Johnson murder case was proceeded with this forenoon. HOME BUILDING SYNDICATE FORMED

H. E. Cooper's tract of Manoa valley land, near College Hills, will be syndicated and opened at once to homebuilders. There are fifty building lots. Two have been sold. The syndicate is composed of H. E. Cooper, the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., and Lewers & Cooke. Mr. Cooper furnishes the land, the Trust Company finances the proposition, and Lewers & Cooke supply the lumber. The idea is to finance those who would own their own homes, with a down payment and monthly installments.

BENEFIT FOR BUHLER

A benefit will be given the Buhlers at the Orpheum next Monday and Tuesday evenings, as a testimonial on the eve of their departure, of the general appreciation of their splendid productions here during the last five months.

Richard Buhler and Louise Orendorf will appear in a particularly clever sketch, "The Crackman," and clever vaudeville stunts will show to advantage the individual talent of every member of the great company.

CHICKEN AT NOLTE'S

On Thursday there will be "chicken, curry and rice" at Nolte's restaurant, the Beaver Lunch Rooms on Fort street, now in charge of Proprietor Krueger. The chickens hail from "Billy" Bellina's justly famous chicken ranch in Palolo, where the finest fowls in the Islands are raised. For a toothsome carnival remember the "chicken, curry and rice" at Nolte's on Thursday.

LUSITANA ORPHAN BENEFIT BOOMING

A rehearsal of the third and last act of that most celebrated comedy "The Cheerful Liar," was had yesterday. What a real live "Liar" in Honolulu! That's a mistake. It was particularly interesting to see the company go through their lines in the first two acts without a hitch, and the "General"—he was sublime. His voice was like the roaring of a lion, but the most singular thing is that he does not need to act—it is perfectly natural. They say that real actors, that is, those that can really be called actors by virtue of their high stand in the profession, live in their parts—well, the General certainly does. And little "Nina" is indeed a real and beautiful bride. She, as the heroine, will be captivating. Her position will be envied by all her girl friends, and her mother's broomstick will be a handy and most useful weapon to drive her numerous admirers from her door. And the hero, her anxious and unfortunate lover, is the picture of grace—a second Buhler indeed. As for the poor, unsophisticated school-marm, she will show the audience that she's no novice at the game. The Lusitanas will donate 50 per cent of the proceeds to the Kona Orphanage. The box office will open on Wednesday, March 28th, at 9 a. m.

STOCKTON REMEMBERED

Prof. J. H. Stockton was very agreeably surprised last evening by the members of the Concordia band when they presented him with a beautiful case and his wife with an equally elaborate and tasteful jewel case. Mr. Stockton has been teaching the Concordia band for some months and has been very successful, and although he receives some remuneration for his services the members felt it appropriate to do a little more by way of expressing their good will toward their leader. The case is of kamani wood with a genuine buckhorn handle. A gold band where the head and cane proper join, bears the inscription "Presented by Concordia Band to J. H. Stockton, 1906."

RUSH FOR SEATS FOR YACHT CLUB BENEFIT

A crowd besieged Waff, Nichols this forenoon, wanting to get at the box office for seats for the Hawaii Yacht Club benefit at the Opera House on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

There is a rush for seats to see "Held by the Enemy" on Thursday and Saturday evenings and "Thelma" on Friday night and at the Saturday matinee. Those who want to see and enjoy crowded hours of entertainment are seeking seats early, for the Buhler company sails away next week and these performances at the Opera House are the last regular plays of the season. As the departure of the Buhlers for the Coast draws near the Honolulu public naturally desires to make the most of what pleasures still await.

"Camille" will be produced tomorrow.
